Corsican mayor bans burkini after violence at beach and protests

A Corsican mayor has announced a ban on burkinis, becoming the third in France to do so, as tensions on the island run high following violent clashes between villagers and three Muslim families.

Skirmishes at a beach in the commune of Sisco at the weekend left four people injured and resulted in riot police being brought in to stop a crowd of 200 Corsicans marching into a housing estate with a high population of people of North African origin, shouting "this is our home".

I created the burkini to give women freedom, not to take it away. I would love to be in France to say this: you have misunderstood.

Australian burkini creator and manufacturer

Aheda Zanetti

The burkini does not symbolise oppression of women, it symbolises leisure and happiness and fitness and health. The Guardian, August 24, 2016
