Ex ante publicity
Subject: Provision of medical services
CEPOL/2021/EAP/006

Description of the services

CEPOL – The European Union Agency for Law Enforcement Training intends to launch in November 2021 a negotiated procurement procedure to award a framework contract for the provision of medical services.

Objective of the contract

The objective of the contract is to select a contractor, which is able to provide medical services for the current and future staff of CEPOL in Budapest.

Main tasks:

- Pre-recruitment medical examinations;
- Annual medical check-ups and possible follow-ups;
- Occupational medical advice and other services (outside the above-indicated medical exams).

Optional services:

- The medical service provider is also invited to offer a corporate package or a financial discount from the pricelist for other services not listed in the main tasks, including general practitioner services to the Agency's staff members and their families that will be directly billed to the staff members.

The maximum possible duration of the contract is 48 months.

The indicative budget for all costs associated with the performance of the contract is €138,000 (excluding VAT).

Description of the procedure:

This ex ante publicity is the first stage of a negotiated procedure with at least 5 (five) economic operators through which CEPOL may award the above-mentioned contract.¹

Details with regards to the technical requirements, the selection criteria and the means of proof as well as the award criteria will be provided in the invitation to tender and tender specifications.

All qualified economic operators interested in providing the above services may express their interest by sending an e-mail with the subject "CEPOL/2021/EAP/006 – Provision of medical services" to tenders@cepol.europa.eu together with their name, address and business details no later than 25 October 2021.

This publication has an indicative value and constitutes no obligation for CEPOL.
