

KYNOPOL

Agenda

„Improving Law Enforcement Canine Capability to combat shared European current and emerging threats” scientific-professional conference

16-17 October 2018

First day

08.30 – 09.30	Registration
09.30 – 09.35	Lt. colonel Dr. PhD. Ferenc Less (Hungary): Welcome and introduction Head of Service Dog Training Centre of Hungarian Police and General Secretary of Kynopol
09.35 – 09.40	Welcoming speech of the representative of Ministry of Interior
09.40 – 09.45	Welcoming speech of the representative of Hungarian National Police
09.45 – 09.55	General Dr. Frigyes Janza (Hungary): Opening speech Association of Law Enforcement Sciences, Chairman
09.55 – 10.15	Dr. habil. József Haller, doctor of Hungarian Academy Sciences (Hungary): Aggression, stress and the working dog National University of Public Services, Faculty of Law Enforcement
10.15 – 10.35	Dr. D.Sc. David Adebimpe (USA): Why a chemically-formulated training aid is better than using real materials as training aids Founder and Head of Polymath Interscience, researcher, inventor
10.35 – 10.55	Colonel Dr. PhD. Bence Mészáros (Hungary): Scent Trails, Scent Samples and Data Protection National University of Public Service Faculty of Law Enforcement, associate professor, vice-dean for academic and international affairs
10.55 – 11.10	Coffee break
11.10 – 11.30	Sergeant José Caetano (Portugal): EDD Training on TATP and Other Homemade Explosives Bomb Squad of National Police of Portugal, EOD technician, chemist
11.30 – 11.50	Chief Inspector Ângelo Manuel De Moura Araújo (Portugal): EDD training on TATP and other homemade explosives Dog Unit of National Police of Portugal, instructor
11.50 – 12.10	Dr. jur. PhD. Orsolya Horváth (Hungary): E-nose vs. dogs - crime scene investigation University of Pécs Faculty of Law, part-time lecturer, University of Pécs Medical School, researcher
12.10 – 13.10	Lunch
13.10 – 13.30	Inspector Mathias Pettersson (Sweden): Detection dog: One way into service Region north Sweden, Department of Serious Crime/Reconnaissance, dog handler
13.30 – 13.50	Zoltán Chikán-Sonne (Hungary): Application of explosives detection dogs of Power Shield Company to protect air traffic in Hungary Power Shield Company, deputy director-general
13.50 – 14.10	Colonel Dominique Dalier (France): Explosive search dogs on moving people French Gendarmerie, Head of Service Dog Training Centre

14.10 – 14.30	Lt. colonel Csaba Bozó (Hungary): The forensic instrumental possibilities for dog assistant scent detection Hungarian Institute for Forensic Sciences Department of Physics and Chemistry, forensic scientist, engineer, teacher
14.30 – 14.45	Coffee break
14.45 – 15.05	Chief Inspector Joni Tonteri (Finland): Finnish Explosive Detection Dogs Service Dog Training Centre of Finish Police, Head of the Service Dog Training Centre
15.05 – 15.25	Sándor Rázsó (Hungary): Official and private security aspects of the protection of explosives and explosive devices in relation explosive searching dogs. Association of Law Enforcement Sciences, expert
15.25 – 15.45	Gary Creed (Canada): Dog breeding programme of Royal Canadian Mounted Police Royal Canadian Mounted Police Police Dog Service Training Centre, instructor
15.45 – 16.05	János Gál (Hungary): Demonstration of the results of GINOP 2.1.1 project Power Shield Company, EDD advisor
16.05 – 16.25	Comments
18.00 – 19.30	Lunch

Second day

08.30 – 09.00	Registration
09.00 – 09.20	Dr. prof. Ádám Miklósi, doctor of Hungarian Academy Sciences (Hungary): Dogs' forgotten skill: Improving skills through social learning in working dogs Loránd Eötvös University Etology Department, head of department, lecturer
09.20 – 09.40	Gary Creed (Canada): Police Dogs and Fentanyl - Training for the threat Royal Canadian Mounted Police Police Dog Service Training Centre, instructor
09.40 – 10.00	Dr. PhD. Márta Gácsi (Hungary): How can we measure the olfactory capacity of dogs (and other species)? MTA-ELTE Comparative Ethology Research Group, senior research fellow
10.00 – 10.20	Mária Bálint (Hungary): Detection of scent of explosives and drug components, adaptation of experiences of scent identification into dog training Bálint Analitika Ltd., director, analytic engineer
10.20 – 10.40	Coffee break
10.40 – 11.00	Colonel Dominique Dalier (France): Explosive search dogs on moving people French Gendarmerie, Head of Service Dog Training Centre
11.00 – 11.40	Gábor Deák (Hungary): Experiences of the project regarding the training and application of poison-against-wildlife detection dogs Birdlife Hungary dog handler
11.40 – 12.00	Inspector Ron van Dijk (Netherlands): Certification police dogs in the Netherlands Service Dog Training Centre of Dutch National Police, head of Office of Certification and Quality Control of Police Dogs
12.00 – 12.30	Comments, closing
12.30 – 13.30	Lunch
13.30 – 16.00	Workshop with representative of Kynopol member states
16.00 – 19.00	Sightseeing in Budapest
19.00 – 20.30	Dinner