The contracting authority has decided to cancel the above procurement procedure on the basis of the following reasoning:

— the provisions governing remuneration in case of sick leave, public holidays and occupational risk prevention included in the tender specifications as drafted in the context of the abovementioned procedure were considered not fully in line with the Hungarian labour law,

— the provisions related to the deadlines for the selection of new candidates and for replacements in situation of temporary incapacity of temporary staff included in the tender specifications drafted in the context of the abovementioned procedure do not seem to reflect the specificities of the Hungarian labour market, where temporary employment agencies often rely on candidates that are already employed by third parties and are not readily available to take up duties within the requested deadlines.
