Section VI: Complementary information

VI.3) Additional information:

The contracting authority has decided to abandon the procurement procedure because it is considering a new business model with regards to its operational activities, especially with regards to the provision of flight tickets to participants in its activities. Implementation of the current ideas under discussion would have a significant downward impact on the services to be provided.

Based on the above consideration, it is highly likely that the current tender documentation does not provide correct estimates for travel to be booked and therefore it is prudent to cancel the current tender.
