CEPOL - Training seminar together with the European Agency for Fundamental Rights (FRA)

THE GOVERNING BOARD,

Having regard to Council Decision 2005/681/JHA (1), and in particular Article 10(9)(d) and 11 (4) (b) thereof;

Having regard to its Decision 07/2011/GB of 23 February 2011 in Basingstoke, United Kingdom, Adopting the CEPOL 2011 Annual Work Plan;

Whereas:

- CEPOL has agreed to jointly organise and finance a training seminar together with the European Agency for Fundamental Rights (FRA): (93/2011) Anti-discrimination & diversity and other fundamental rights topics in police training, to be held 12-13 September, Bramshill, United Kingdom (arrival 11 September);
- An agreement in sharing the financial burden is found by FRA arranging and paying the flights for ALL participants, while the expenses for accommodation and meals of ALL participants plus trainers' flights and expense should be borne out of the CEPOL budget;
- Decision 30/2006/GB amended by Decision 11/2011/GB does not cover for the payment for costs of participants from Candidate Countries, it is regarded to be in the interest of the FRA and CEPOL and the objectives of this particular training to allow for an exception in this case;
- As part of the arrangement, CEPOL will pay for the flights for the two trainer experts, delegated by FRA;
- The Chair of the External Relations Working Group were consulted for his approval;
- The CEPOL Presidency has launched a Written Procedure to seek the approval of the Governing Board to allow the disbursement of funds for said purpose (Annex 2);
- 27 Member States have approved the proposal (from which 17 non-responses will be considered to be an approval in accordance with Article 9 of GB Rules of Procedure);
